

Aboriginal young people in state care in South Australia

June 2014*

* Placement in accordance with the Aboriginal Child Placement Principle is defined as the number of Indigenous children placed with the child's extended family, Indigenous community or other Indigenous people, divided by the total number of Indigenous children in out-of-home care.

*Families SA provided the data for Substantiated notifications of child abuse/neglect in SA by type and Aboriginal status, 2013-2014. All other data was sourced from Report on Government Services 2015 <http://www.pc.gov.au/research/recurring/report-on-government-services/2015/community-services/child-protection>
