

Young people in state care and custody in South Australia 2014-15

At June 30 2015, there were 2,690 children and young people under the guardianship of the SA Minister for Education and Child Development.¹

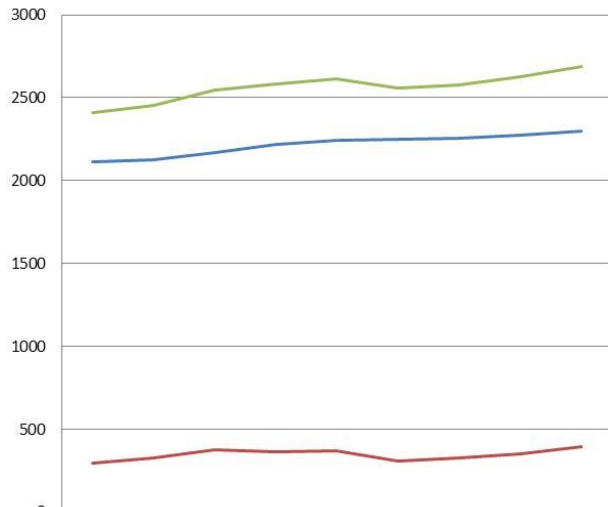

Living arrangements AIHW specification)²

Aboriginality

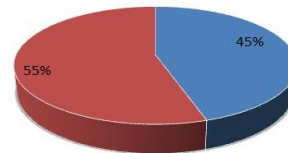

Children in custody or guardianship

In the period 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2015, 827 admissions were made to the Adelaide Youth Training Centre which involved 426 individual young people. At the time of admission, their characteristics were as follows:

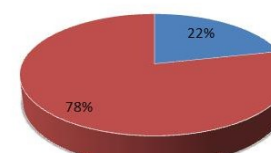

Aboriginality

■ ATSI ■ non-ATSI

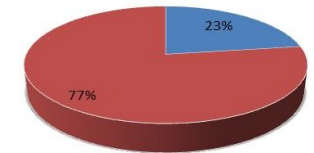

Guardianship status

■ Guardianship ■ No order

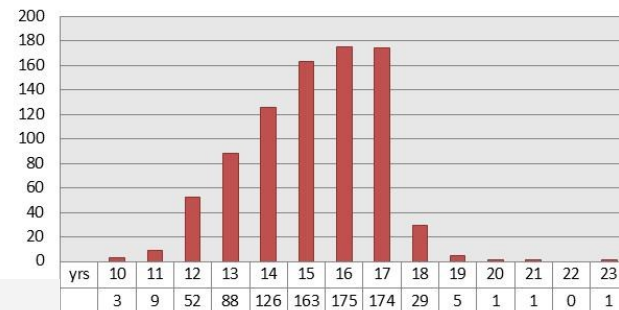

Gender

■ Female ■ Male

Individuals by age at admission

1. Figures supplied by Families SA.

2. AIHW data refers to a similar but not identical population to Families SA data due to different counting rules. June 2015 data becomes available in June 2016.

Government of South Australia

Office of the Guardian for Children and Young People